The company has also left standing at the crossing some heavy freight cars. A delegation of indignant taxpayers yesterialy waited on the Street and Water Commissioners to see what could be done toward keeping the street open. Chief Engineer Ruggles to d them that he believed the company had a right to build a fence, for he feared the right of way was never condemned. Superintendent Peddie, of the Railroad Company, gave the Commissioners to understand that the fence was only temporary. The Street and Water Commissioners do not believe this Mayor Wanser had a consultation with the Railroad officials yesterday and will see them again to-day.

prises had much to say yesterday about his unusual ability as a business man. When the National Cordage Company, the original Cordage Trust, was organized some half-dozen years ago, it was necessary to secure control of the plant and connections of L. Waterbury & Co. This firm was one of the larg-L. Waterbury & Co. This firm was one of the largest manufacturers of rope and twine in the country. An extremely tempting offer was made to L. Waterbury & Co. to induce the firm to enter the trust. Mr. Marshall's partners were willing. After careful consideration Mr. Marshall refused absolutely to accept the proposition which had been made, but offered to sell out his interest in the firm. His price was considered by the organizers of the National Cordage Company to be several hundred per cent too high. They refused to pay the amount Mr. Marshall asked, but kept negotiations hanging fire until finally they discovered that the purchase of his interest was a necessity. Then they paid him his price.

Salvator Cuglianetti, an Italian, sixty years old, of No. 121 Avenue B, committed suicide early yes-terday by jumping from the ferryboat Southside shortly after she left her slip at East Tenth-st. He was rescued from the water, but died after being brought ashore. The stockholders of the Lindeman & Sons Plano

Company on June 1 elected L. W. P. Norris, president; N. S. King, vice-president, and S. G. Lindeman, secretary and treasurer. On the same day these new officers purchased from former holders the entire capital stock of the company, and their future policy will be one of aggressiveness, making the Lindeman piano even more popular than it has been for nearly three-quarters of a century. The unknown man who was found unconscious at, a conductor on a Halsey-st, car, died at the at the foot of the stairway in the tenement-house terday morning in Bellevue Hospital from a fractured skull. His body has not yet been identified. It is that of a man sixty years old, with gray hair and gray heard and no mustache. He was dressed in dark clothing, and carried a cane the handle of which represented the bill of a duck.

Everything is now ready for the celebration today of the silver jubilee of the Right Rev. Monsignor Farley at St. Gabriel's Church, East Thirtyseventh-st. Bishop Hennessy, of Wichita, Kan., is the guest of Monsignor Furley, and will be present at the solemn high mass, which will begin at 10:20. At the dinner in St. Gabriel's Hall, which will follow the presentation of an address and testimonial to Monsignor Farley, the Rev. James J. Doughert will be toastmaster.

The recently organized Standard National Bank has secured as its clearing agents the Hanover National Bank, and is expected to begin business to-day or to-morrow in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Building, Twenty-third-st, and Madison ave. The new bank will start with a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $25,000. Its president is M. W. Cooper, and its vice-president W. R. Brown, Granville E. Nichols, formerly a member of the has been a fugitive from justice, was yesterday brought to the District-Attorney's office by Detective Wade, of Police Headquarters. Nichols, about two years ago, defaulted with $2,000 belonging to John Jacquelin & Co., the stock brokers, No. 71 Broadway, by whom he was then employed as a bookkeeper. Nichols wandered about Canada, a tramp, during the time he has been away, and a week ago gave himself up at Port Hope, Canada.

There was to have been a meeting of the special committee investigating the Waring deficit yesterday, but only Controller Fitch and President Barker of the Tax Department were present, and action was postponed. The deficit of about $900,000 is to be made up by an issue of bonds under the Emergency act, and provided for in next year's budget. The effect will be to increase the streetcleaning appropriation for 1896 to about $3,500,000

Sons and daughters of sunny Italy, as well as Roman Catholics generally, turned out in great umbers yesterday morning to attend the service at St. Anthony's Church, Sullivan-st., where solemn triduum, in honor of the seventh centenary of that celebrated Franciscan divine, was begun. Italian art was used with much success in decorating the church. Signor Colombani produced marvellous effects with electric lights, while festoons of evergreens and a profusion of flowers added to the fine scenic display.

The tridium began with the celebration of pontifical high mass by Bishop Wigger, of Newark, N. J., assisted by the Rev. Charles Colton, of St. Veronica's, deacon, and Father Reid, subdeacon. The general master of ceremonies was the Rev. Henry T. Newey, of St. Patrick's Cathedral. Archbishop Corrigan, in full robes, sat on the throne, attended by the Rev. James H. McGean, of St. Peter's, and the Rev. Edward Kearney, of old St. Patrick's.

The sermon was preached in both English and Patrick's.

The sermon was preached in both English and Italian by the Rev. Dr. Brann, of St. Agnes's.

After mass a large statue of St. Anthony of Padia, placed over the entrance of the church was bessed by Archbishop Corrigan with impressive ceremonics, the Rev. Father Athanasius, rector of the church, assisting. The devotions will continue until Thursdey.
